

Alexandria Gazette.

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 20.

A NEW JEAN D'ARC.—The career of a female enthusiast, who possessed to have a divine mission to set everything right in France, has just been closed for the moment in a cell at the prefecture of police, Paris. Marie Costerg, born of humble villagers in Savoy, is said to have been subject in her childhood to reveries, ecstasies and other sensations of a mystic character. She professed the utmost piety, and had on one occasion, while climbing up a mountain, held a tete-a-tete interview with an apparition vaguely described by her as "a white form," which revealed to her the high destinies which the future had in store for her. Inspired by these revelations, Marie Costerg resolved on making a move, and directed her steps not to Orleans, but to the worldly and frivolous Paris. Her mission led her to take a small room in a quiet house, which she furnished with a table and two chairs and a straw pallet. A few walks about the gay metropolis inspired the saintly maiden with more ambitious ideas; for while writing to various personages, including several Cabinet Ministers, in the hope of obtaining interviews, she ordered furniture to the amount of $2,000. With these outward and visible signs of comfort, and with replies to her applications for interviews which she had to show, she soon succeeded in making dupes, especially among ladies. Her furniture bill, however, remaining unpaid, she was arrested. She informed the magistrate who questioned her that she had been charged by a person well acquainted with the Comte de Paris and Prince Victor Bonaparte to come to an understanding with President Grevy for the repeal of the expulsion decrees. She added that there was also an idea of a coup d'etat, and that she had been working hard to save France by means of the return of the Princes. All her projects for the salvation of her country have now fallen to the ground, for this new Jean d'Arc is now under lock and key.

Storm Signals.
As the coming of a great storm is heralded by the display of cautionary signals, so is the approach of that dread and fatal disease, Consumption of the Lungs, usually announced in advance by pimples, blotches, eruptions, ulcers, glandular swellings, and kindred outward manifestations of the internal blood poison, which, if not promptly expelled from the system, attacks the delicate tissues of the lungs, causing them to ulcerate and break down. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is the great remedy for this, as for all diseases having their origin in bad blood. It improves the appetite and digestion, increases nutrition and builds up the wasted system.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it treats the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle. Wm. L. Mumford, Proprietor.
